OPC SPONSORED PRESS TOUR TO SOUTH AMERICA - 1966

Change your course and gain a fresh eye. Travelling under OPC aegis is SPECIAL. Doors are opened for interviews and amenities are afforded that money ca not buy. This is OPC's second Club Press Tour - and again to South America. The first took place 10 years ago - August, 1956.

The Dates: Going: Wednesday, August 3 - 3:15 p.m. - N.Y. to Panama
 Returning: Monday, August 29 - 10:10 p.m. - Brasilia to N. Y.

The Price: For 27 days - the best hotels, many meals, all taxes and most tip sight-seeing and airfare, including Cuzco and Iguassu Falls* -

Two in a room - $1,192.30* - per person
One in a room - $1,291.30* - per person

*Iguassu Falls optional - if you do not wish to go - deduct $70.

Plans: With the cooperation of your Committee, the U.S. State Department, Panagra and Pan American Airlines, you will have interviews with top government officials of the countries we visit. You will have press conferences and entertainment and sight-seeing. This comprehensive trip covers as many of the best known cities and the exotic - such as Machu Picchu, Cuzco and Iguassu Falls* - as the budget of time and money allows.

With a Group You will travel with your confreres and attend conferences and reand ceptions with them. When not otherwise committed, you are free to
On Your Own: pursue (within the limits of time) your own assignments.
